Our commitment with integrity, fairness and a healthy work environment

Integrity and honesty are the basic building blocks that PROSHALE LLC and its subsidiaries are constructed upon and are values that define our company as a whole. Harassment, discrimination and business abuse are contrary to these values. They are divisive, counterproductive and illegal. Accordingly, harassment, discrimination, and business abuse have no place at PROSHALE LLC or any of its related companies. We will not allow these things to affect our business and the lives of those who are part of our team. To further address these concerns, PROSHALE LLC has introduced a confidential business abuse online form to provide a mean to anonymously report unethical or illegal activity that could damage our company.

Our commitment with integrity, fairness and a healthy work environment

No matter your role in the organization, attributes like integrity, creativity, and respect are what make our company successful. When we face difficult decisions during the course of our work, we make integrity our highest priority and demand the same from those around us. We do not sacrifice honesty, fairness, or respect in pursuit of profits.

PROSHALE's senior management team, and I are committed to our Company's core values. We expect that same commitment from you to the values that have defined

PROSHALE since the founding of the Company – integrity, safety, collaboration, competition, creativity, reliability, and respect.
